

INTRODUCTION

Dear Student, Parent/Carer

At the heart of our school aims are the interests and well-being of students. We are determined to do everything that we can to ensure that the time which students spend at John Flamsteed is happy, worthwhile and fulfilling.

We want our school to be a partnership so that everyone connected with it can work together, share in our aims, and play a part in meeting the day-to-day challenges of education.

We invite you to sign this Home-School Agreement. By doing so you will become an active partner in our pursuit of success.

Home-School Agreements have been made compulsory by the government from September 1999. They must set out what the school, students and parents can expect from each other. They are not legally binding documents and parents/guardians and students do not have to sign.

The School's Agreement

We will aim to:

- Treat students fairly, care for them well and ensure their happiness and safety.
- Ensure that they are well taught and that they are encouraged to achieve their full potential in all aspects of school life.
- Help them to develop a sense of responsibility and to be considerate to others.
- Provide an appropriate curriculum for each student.
- Keep parties informed about school matters, student progress, successes and concerns.
- Offer parents/carers the opportunity to become active partners in their child's learning and in school life.
- Set regular homework.
