

What skills are we looking for in a geography student? Is this you?

A thinker – open to new ideas and questions the world around them.

Written communication – A good geographer can write in extended detail.

Observant: geographers take notice of the world around them and look at the big picture and also the detail.

Time for Geography

Teamwork: Geographers work well together to solve problems and investigate issues

Shares ideas. Open to discuss issues and give their opinion.

Ideas! Geographers can suggest ideas in unfamiliar situations.

Data: Geographers can view graphs and charts to make sense of data spotting trends and patterns.